While many configurations of legacy products from HONEYWELL have been installed, this program is for the core components required to upgrade to an SMX+ system. This special offer applies to BC-200 upgrades only.

Product Support from HONEYWELL is available to answer questions about upgrading a system.

To assist in the upgrade process, HONEYWELL can support with configuration conversions via SMX+ database Migration tool. This tool allows the BC-200 Configuration Database to be imported to VeriFire Tools eliminating a significant amount of programming time. Point hardware, configuration and descriptors are migrated during the process.

Offer your customers the latest technology in fire and life safety systems by delivering a system with features to meet their present and future requirements. The SMX+ Series upgrade will strengthen your reputation as the premier fire alarm provider in your service area.
