

Congratulations to Our 2022 Diamond Authorized System Distributors

Together, Honeywell and our Authorized System Distributors (ASDs) provide the best possible service for a wide variety of customers. We recognize that this status reflects a significant mutual investment by both our partners and Honeywell and we value your ongoing partnerships as we work to develop your markets.

We would like to recognize the dedication all of our ASDs showed this past year and would especially like to thank our Diamond ASDs for their outstanding commitment and partnerships.
